Tip Sheet for Labour Market Awareness Skills

Did you Know? Start by introducing a fact about the CM Skills in Question	Did you Know? “The future of work consists of learning a living” – Marshall McLuhan
Tip #1 for developing the CMS:	Tip #1 for developing Labour Market Awareness Skills for Employment: Critically Analysing Information: Analysing labour market needs, wants, and demands is important to understand current information. When analysing data, you need to consider being aware of the sample size of the statistics for the data to be trustworthy. Likewise, is the data up to date? Tracking and recording changes in the supply and demand for labour will prepare you to predict potential labour market changes.
Tip #2 for developing the CMS:	Tip #2 for developing Labour Market Awareness Skills for Employment: Checking Your Expectations: It is possible in today’s world that you may have to move to another country to acquire the experience and skills required to ensure employment in your desired career. In doing so, you can evaluate options abroad that could help you to progress in a position long term.
Tip #3 for developing the CMS:	Tip #3 for developing Labour Market Awareness Skills for Employment: Finding Short-Term or Part-Time Employment: Most people want to feel safe and secure in permanent/full-time jobs in their chosen careers. However, this isn’t always possible as employers may not be looking for full-time employees. Taking part-time or short-time employment is a great way to get your foot in the door and gain the skills and experience necessary for your desired profession.
