Team assignment: Making a lesson plan

Participants are divided into groups and have to make an outline/frame of a module of their combined knowledge gathered through all the training.

- 1)What would be the topics?
- 2)What would be the ways to engage learners?
- 3)What tools would you use in your teaching methods?
- 4)How would you test their knowledge?
- 5)Create one icebreaker/warmer
- 6)Create one feedback activity

After each group is finished, they present their module outline to another group.
